

"Grateful Results"

A life of suffering and misery, without sleep, without appetite. Restored to health by

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was grievously afflicted with biliousness and liver complaint. My mouth was in a terrible condition every morning, my tongue thickly coated, my breath was offensive, food distressed me, I suffered much from headache, my skin was sallow, and the many remedies recommended me did no good. At last I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and my improvement began almost from the first dose. It relieved the distress about my liver, caused my food to digest well, cured my headache, improved my complexion, and restored my appetite. These unlooked-for but grateful results were accomplished by only two and a half bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla."—Mrs. Lydia M. Tabor, Altoona, Pa.

There are many imitation Sarsaparillas. Be sure you get "AYER'S."

BATTLE OF THE BOATSReds and Blues Strive for Aquatic Glory Today.

Who will win? That is the question that is perplexing hundreds who will visit Pearl Harbor today to witness the eleventh annual championship races held under the auspices of the Hawaiian Rowing Association.

It will be a jolly crowd that will go down on the train and it will be a keen, sport-loving crowd that will witness the races from the shore. They are going out for a good time and win Myrtle or Healan, will succeed in having it.

The senior race will be rowed first, then the junior contest and then the Elks-University Club crews' sprint over three-quarters of a mile.

The crews and weights are as follows:

Training was brought to a satisfactory termination yesterday and every man who will handle an oar appears to be as fit as the proverbial fiddle.

The Myrtle Seniors should take the main event without much difficulty. They are a better than average crew.

The junior event looks like being a hard-fought contest. The Healan Juniors are a better crew than they have been given credit for and should just about squeeze home winners. It will be a mighty tight fit, however.

The University Club look to have a winning outfit in their race with the Elks. The latter are much the heavier crew but experience and watermanship are what counts.

Following are the time records of past years:

Year.	Senior. Time.	Junior. Time.
1896—Myrtle.	10:03	Myrtle. 10:21
1897—Myrtle.	9:48	Myrtle. 10:29 1-4
1898—Healan.	10:05 2-5	Healan. 10:14 2-5
1899—Myrtle.	11:00	Myrtle. 10:48
1900—Healan.	10:14	Myrtle. 11:14
1901—Healan.	10:37 1-3	Healan. 11:24
1902—Myrtle.	10:40 2-5	Myrtle. 10:31
1903—Healan.	10:05 2-5	Healan. 10:19
1904—Myrtle.	10:48 1-5	Myrtle. 11:04 2-5
1905—Myrtle.	10:34 4-5	Myrtle. 10:40

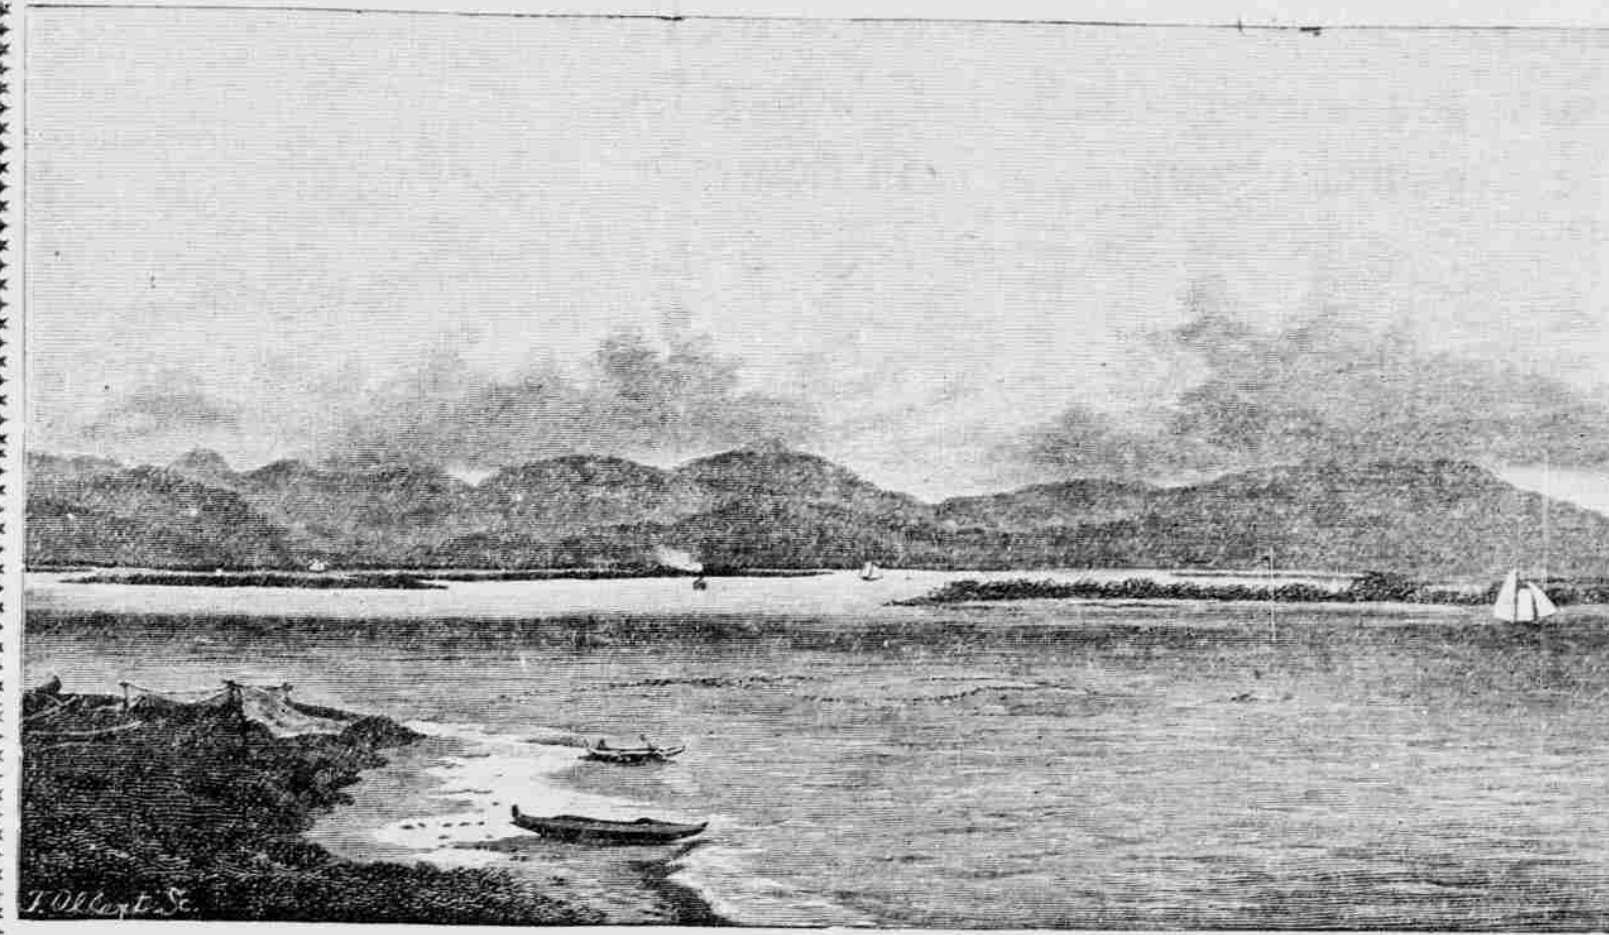

The Myrtles it will be seen have landed the double event the last two years while since the regatta of 1900 the rule has been "win one, win both."

The officials of the races are as follows:

Judges—Commodore Sinclair, G. H. Gere and W. W. Harris.

Starter—George Turner.

Time Keepers—Clarence Crabbe, O. E. McCarthy and Judge A. A. Wilder.

BIRD'S-EYE VIEW OF PEARL HARBOR.

The annual rowing contests will be held there today.

AT THE TRAINING QUARTERS.

A visit to the training quarters of the crews at the Peninsula last night found an all-pervading air of confidence in each. And, singularly enough, in each of the camps of the Myrtles and the Healan it was the junior fours that each was depending upon as almost a certainty.

The Healan crews are in good shape, but it is reported that the shifting around among them that has been found necessary has not had the best of results.

"We have a good even break for the senior event," said one of the trainers, "and I think we should capture the junior without much trouble. That is, barring accidents. Our boys are not trained down so fine as the Myrtles, who have rather overdone it, I think. At any rate, we are out to win and intend to do the best that is in us."

Captain King of the Myrtles pointed out the junior four as they swung over a fast quarter for a stretch, the boys swinging in perfect union, with plenty of power in their stroke.

"That's the fastest junior four the Myrtles ever had," he said, "and the fastest on the beach. I have no hesitation at all in picking them out for the winners tomorrow. Our seniors are in fine shape, too, and we look to them to finish with a good lead."

"I see by one of the papers that our juniors can lead us any day of the week," spoke up a burly member of the senior crew. "We don't admit that, but you can say that they are the only ones on the beach who can hold us down to a couple of lengths."

Which is a fair indication of the way the Myrtle seniors are sizing up their own chances.

In the three-quarters between the University and Elks' fours the outcome cannot easily be doped. Until the last couple of days it seemed to be generally conceded that the Varsity boys would pull away from the Elks in easy fashion, but the latter crew has developed wonderfully and are commencing to be regarded as favorites. This race is bound to be a good one, with a close finish.

CRICKETERS' BIG HOLIDAY GAME

Quite a large party will journey to the Moanalua polo grounds for the cricket match to be held today. The tallyho and other conveyances will start from the Opera House at 9 a. m. sharp. Among those who will make the trip are the following:

R. Anderson, S. Beardmore, J. L. Cockburn, J. H. Fiddes, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Jordan, C. P. Morse, Jas. Macdonell, J. M. Tucker, F. Withington, H. M. Ayres, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Beardmore, S. Catt, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Herbert, the Misses Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. McGill, R. G. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Withington, J. V. Stevenson, Rev. Wm. Ault, Mr. and Mrs. T. Gill, F. Holmes, S. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. M. Maclean, A. St. Plianaia, L. Withington, Viggo Jacobsen, H. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Brown, Mr. Grant, A. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Rath.

BAND, SKATING AND DANCING

That is the program for tonight at the Queen street rink. It will be the only band concert in town and everyone enjoys a good concert of patriotic music on the Fourth.

The non-skating crowd will have a go at the hard maple floor, too, the latter part of the evening being given over to dancing. The rink will not be open during the day. Join the big Fourth of July crowd at the rink tonight.

OTHER HALF COMMENCESToday's Games Should Be of an Interesting Nature.

This afternoon will witness the opening of the second half of the baseball season, the opposing teams being the Kamehamehas and Malles and the Punahous and Oahus. Since the upset of the Oahus last Saturday anything may be expected and it will be gratifying if during the second half, the three lower teams occasionally turn the tables.

The Kamehamehas played a good game last Saturday and that coupled with the fact that the Oahus were two men short, made the outcome not alone possible but very probable. Some of the local writers used much space in telling what fierce ball was being played, in the Oahu-Kam game. The fact is that the Kams played an excellent game and the Oahus were weakened by the absence of Ringland and White.

It does not follow that because a team is apparently strong, it cannot on occasion be beaten by a team not so formidable. The Honolulu have time and again been beaten by the Malles, Punahous and Kamehamehas, and will be beaten again. Nor does it follow that the losing team is playing poor ball.

It is to be hoped that the public will continue to patronize the games liberally and accept what is given them in the right spirit. They are getting the boys' best and are giving little in return. The games put up by the Coast League are not any better than the local, considering the fact that the home teams are amateur and the Coast teams professional.

DIAMOND DUST

Johnny Williams will play third for the Puns today.

It is to be hoped that White and Ringland will appear with the Oahus.

The Reds rest today.

McCorriston will watch for the Punahous.

Reuter is getting in shape and if he keeps up his good work, look out for the Kams in this half.

Desha may surprise the knowing ones; he can pitch with any of them and if he continues the form shown in the Pun-Kam game he will win a few good games.

The Malles are the weak sister. There are good men in the aggregation and with the right man at their head would make a showing that would surprise the fans.

All of the teams play better ball at the latter end of each season.

On Sunday the Winter series begins and much is expected from the Juniors. Everything is ready and when the umpire calls the first game the boys will be in shape to make the showing of their lives.

LOTS OF FUN AT THE ZOO

Today will be a great day at the Zoo and a program has been arranged which promises plenty of fun for old and young, all day long.

The attractions are as follows:

Forenoon—Roller polo, first prize; roller basketball, first prize; roller baseball, first prize; catching pig, on skates, first prize; obstacle race, on skates, first prize; egg and spoon race, on skates, first prize; spear-throwing race, on skates, first prize; backward race, on skates, first prize; slow race, on skates, first prize.

Intermission for lunch.

Afternoon—Girls' skating race, first and second prizes; boys' skating race, first and second prizes; relay race, 1 mile, first prize; mile race, first and second prizes; half mile race, first and second prizes.

Intermission.

Evening—Grand masquerade ball, on skates, four prizes; dances, fireworks.

All races and games free for all.

WILL SHOOT FOR PRIZES

The first prize shoot of the Hawaiian Rifle Association will take place at the Kakaako range today, firing commencing at 9 a. m.

Rifles and ammunition may be obtained at nominal prices at the range.

The entry in each event promises to be a large one and some keen shooting may be looked forward to.

The events are as follows:

Members' Match. 1. Rothwell Cup, 1st prize, silver cup, presented by J. G. Rothwell; 2nd prize, 22-caliber rifle, presented by Hawaiian Rifle Association; 3rd prize, Gillette safety razor, presented by the Hawaiian Rifle Association.

Conditions of the Match.—Open to all members of the Hawaiian Rifle Association. First prize to become the property of the marksman winning it three times at the semi-annual meetings of the H. R. A. Distance, 200 yards; off hand; 10 rounds; any rifle under the rules; trigger pull, 3 lbs. or over; telescopic sights and spirit levels not allowed; limited to one entry to each competitor. Entrance fee, $1.

2 and 3. Citizens' Matches.—A and B conditions.—Class A: Open to all comers. Class B: Open to all who have not made a record of 80 per cent. with a rifle in a contest or for classification. Five rounds at 200 yards; off hand; any rifle not having telescopic sight or spirit level; trigger pull, 3 lbs. or over; entries unlimited. Entrance fee, 50 cents.

The many valuable prizes generously presented by the merchants of Honolulu will be awarded as follows: The marksman making the highest score in Class A, according to Creedmoor count, to have first choice; the marksman making the highest score in Class B, Creedmoor count, to have second choice, and so on alternately.

4. Bull's-Eye Target. (6-in bull's-eye ring).—Conditions.—Open to all comers; any rifle without telescopic sight or spirit level; trigger pull, 3 lbs. or over; distance, 200 yards; off hand; five shots; unlimited entries. Seventy-five per cent. of the total receipts of this match will be awarded pro rata to the total number of bull's-eyes. Entrance fee, 50 cents.

DIAMOND HEADS WILL ENTERTAIN

This evening the Diamond Head Athletic Club will give a benefit concert, such as has never before been offered the sports-loving and music-loving people of Honolulu. The program is constituted entirely of musical and acrobatic numbers, and those taking part are all local artists.

One of the prettiest numbers on the program is the zither solo, with a mandolin and guitar accompaniment, by Ernest Bischof, a young man who is being recognized as the only authority on zither-playing on the islands. There will also appear on the lengthy program, one of the most prominent tenor singers in the city. His melodious and pleasing voice of an exceptionally rare quality will be heard at its best, and the song that is selected by him for the occasion is one that covers not only a wide range, but embodies expressions of strength and life and then fading into tenderness and sweetness. To this end Jas. Dougherty has volunteered to assist, and will delight all in his usual winning and pleasing manner.

Ernest Kaai, prominent in the musicles of this city, will conduct his clever little mandolin club composed of his best students. It is known to all how well this club can render difficult selections with Italian fire and rapidity, and yet it is simply wonderful how this same organization can render simpler gems with that smoothness and softness of Hawaiian placidity.

A banjo quartet will strike up music characteristic of the South and their number is being looked forward to by banjo enthusiasts with some degree of interest. This is the first banjo quartet to appear on any Hawaiian stage, and is composed of such well-known performers as C. D. Wright, Geo. O'Neill, Gustave Schaefer and E. Kaai.

The acrobatic part of the program will also be very interesting and anyone attending will surely appreciate the whole performance.

JUST A WORD FOR THE UMPIRE.

Who walks unnoticed to the plate?

Who cares not what will be his fate?

The Umpire!

Who's damned at once by all the throng?

Who gets abuse from weak and strong?

Who's never right and
